Liberalisation and Financial Resilience in a Global Context

Joint Tsinghua University – LSE Workshop

13th December 9:00-17:00pm

Venue: Tsinghua University, School of Economics and Management (Room 401, Weilun Building)

This workshop will discuss distortions and the two-sector nature of the Chinese economy; financial liberalisation under such circumstances; and China's growing engagement in global financial governance – “Global China”.

The event is the initial meeting under a grant of the UK Economic and Social Research Council (ESRC) and the National Natural Science Foundation of China (NSFC) and co-organised by Tsinghua University and London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE). It will bring together academics from lead Chinese universities and LSE, central bank officials, policy makers and business practitioners.
