Location: Singapore
Role: Regional Head
Company: Liferay Singapore Pte Ltd.

Sandeep has a bachelor's degree in Engineering and over 18 years of hands-on experience in enterprise software solution growth, market strategy, sales, design, development and delivery. Sandeep currently works at Liferay Inc., and is also a co-founder of ParentSider, a platform for parents to increase engagements with their children.

By completing the EGMiM, Sandeep hopes to learn new approaches, as well as, understand and adopt perspectives that he may have academically and practically never come across. Sandeep hopes to not only improve the personal branding and positioning for himself but also for the organisations and ventures that he associates himself with.

Kohtaro Kosugiyama

Nationality: Japanese

Location: Paris, France

Role: Social Innovation Fellow

Company: Innovation Foundation, Adecco Group

Kohtaro bridges sustainability and business both academically and professionally. For the last four years, he has led the sustainability function at Adecco Group Japan, working closely with global leadership. He has spoken at multiple global platforms such as the UN General Assembly. In 2022, Kohtaro published a book on corporate sustainability, UNSDGs, and his post-2030 sustainability vision.

Currently based in Europe, Kohtaro aims to leverage the EGMiM programme to deepen his management skills and evolve from a sustainability expert into a business leader with a strong sustainability foundation.

Nicolas Mauer

Nationality: Slovak

Location: Bratislava, Slovakia

Role: M&A Associate

Company: Envien Group

Nicolas earned his MSc in Economics and Business with a specialisation in Financial Economics from Erasmus University Rotterdam, and has 7 years' experience working in corporate finance. Nicolas now works in the overseas M&A department of Envien Group, which engages in the production of biofuels used in motor fuels.

Nicolas is also engaged in global politics, with a specific focus on developments within Slovakia and the Eurozone. His strong understanding of public affairs and policy-making processes is in part due to his active membership in the European Democratic Youth Network (EDYN) and prior involvement with a political party.

Nicolas is confident that the knowledge and connections gained through completing the EGMiM programme will support his entrepreneurial ambitions, enabling him to make meaningful contributions to current and future projects and assume leadership roles.

Orestes Mersinias

Nationality: Greek/British

Location: Athens, Greece

Role: Founder & CEO

Company: Ocyan

Orestes began his academic journey in film production, before pivoting to software engineering. This transition enabled Orestes to blend artistic insights with technical acumen, leading to roles, such as a software developer in a startup to a strategic leader at Amazon. Orestes' professional evolution culminated in founding Ocyan, a technology consultancy firm, where he successfully delivered substantial ROI and market advancements for their clients through innovative strategies and robust leadership.

By being part of the EGMiM programme, Orestes aims to deepen his management theory knowledge, expand his international network, refine his strategic capabilities, and enhance his leadership, enabling him to drive further success and innovation.

Dominika Zedler

Nationality: German
Location: Cologne, Germany
Role: Senior Manager
Company: KPMG

Dominika is a Senior Manager at KPMG in Public Sector Consulting, with over 8-years' experience as a consultant. As an account manager Dominika works with cross-functional teams to ensure business expansion, representing KPMG to clients, partners and stakeholders, and to develop solutions for digitalisation of administrative services for citizens. Dominika has always had a strong interest in international relations, particularly in foreign and security policy, which led her to pursue a master's degree in political science at the University of Cologne and combine her studies with a student intercultural experience in Spain and as an intern in Cairo at the German-Arab Chamber of Industry and Commerce.

Dominika is confident that completing this master's programme will help her to improve her knowledge in global management and prepare her for future challenges in an international context.

Zaur Abdullayev

Nationality: Azerbaijani
Location: Baku, Azerbaijan
Role: Tribe Lead, CIB
Company: Pasha Bank OJSC

I'm a corporate and institutional banking professional with 11+years of experience serving large local and international corporate clients. Today I lead the Corporate & Institutional Banking tribe at PASHA Bank OJSC, where I coordinate cross-functional squads to deepen client relationships and deliver end-to-end solutions across lending, trade and account management, while keeping portfolio growth, risk and client experience in balance.

I studied at the Azerbaijan State University of Economics (UNEC), building a foundation in economics and finance that underpins my approach to credit, risk and capital allocation. I've complemented this with ongoing professional training in corporate banking disciplines and market best practices to stay current with regulatory, product and technology change. Outside work, I recharge through skiing and travelling.

Pursuing the EGMiM at LSE is the next step in my development. I plan to leverage LSE's strengths in economics, analytics and leadership to sharpen my strategic decision-making, and strengthen my command of corporate finance and digital transformation.

Sarah AlFaris

Nationality: Saudi Arabian
Location: Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
Role: Executive Director
Company: Tourism Development Fund

I studied Business Administration with a minor in Marketing. I have built my career across different sectors including telecom, artificial intelligence and now tourism. Each step has taught me something new and helped me become more flexible, curious and confident in leading projects. Today, I work at the Tourism Development Fund in Saudi Arabia, where I contribute to projects that support Vision 2030 and aim to make the Kingdom a world class destination.

Outside work, I enjoy horseback riding and running. Riding has taught me patience, focus and balance while running gives me energy and discipline.

I joined the programme to strengthen my critical thinking and to learn from the international experiences of others. I believe this exposure will help me see challenges from new angles and prepare me to take on bigger responsibilities.

Harriet Baylore

Nationality: British

Location: London, UK

Role: Programme Manager,
Department of Finance

Company: LSE

I completed my undergraduate degree in History and Contemporary Chinese Studies at the University of Nottingham, splitting my time between the UK and China campuses.

Since then, I've built a career spanning higher education and recruitment, with roles at London Business School, the London School of Economics, and McKinsey & Company. Outside of work—and now my studies on the EGMiM programme—you'll often find me reading, learning new skills (my latest is throwing on the pottery wheel), or exploring new destinations. I'm excited to use the EGMiM to broaden my understanding of organisations, markets, and management, and to take the next step in my professional journey.

Antonio Esteinou Huacuja

Nationality: Mexican

Location: Mexico City, Mexico

Role: Institutional Sales
Associate

Company: The Vanguard Group

I studied a BA in Financial Management in Mexico City and spent a semester abroad in Reims, France as part of my degree. I have been working in the asset management industry for six years, and today I am a Sales Associate at The Vanguard Group, covering the institutional channel for investors across Latin America.

Outside of work, I enjoy traveling, watching and playing sports, spending time with family & friends, and exploring new restaurants and bars. I see this programme as a new dimension for my growth, one that will allow me to develop a global lens and strengthen my path as a leader, both within my company and in my community.

Tevfik Ozan Fenercioğlu

Nationality: Turkish

Location: Istanbul, Turkey

Role: Vice President of Engineering

Company: REPKON Holding Inc.

I have built my career at the intersection of engineering, manufacturing, and strategic leadership. Over the past years, I have combined technical expertise with business strategy, enabling me to design product roadmaps, deliver large-scale projects, and work closely with cross-functional teams across R&D, production, and corporate planning.

Outside of work, I enjoy traveling and exploring different cultures, especially through history and food. I also value mentoring young engineers and contributing to academic and professional initiatives, where I often support student teams and early-career colleagues. These activities not only allow me to give back but also help me continue learning and growing.

Through this programme, I hope to further strengthen my strategic and managerial skills, with a focus on global market expansion and long-term planning. My ambition is to take on leadership roles where I can blend my technical foundation with business expertise to drive innovation and sustainable growth on an international scale. I am especially motivated by the chance to learn from a diverse group of peers and to apply new perspectives to complex challenges across industries.

Charlie Haack

Nationality: American Location: West Springfield, USA
Role: Vice President Technical Services
Company: North American Insulation Manufacturers Association

I am the Vice President of Technical Services at the North American Insulation Manufacturers Association (NAIMA). In this role I am involved in energy and building code development, competitive product testing, industry training initiatives, and manage the development of the widely used pipe insulation savings assessment tool, 3E Plus. I also serve as a voting member of RESNET SDC 300 and ASHRAE 90.1.

Prior to joining NAIMA, I was a Manager on ICF International's Energy Efficiency Analytics & Policy team where I led national and international energy efficiency policy development including policy-level analysis, large-scale energy modeling, stakeholder outreach, and programme evaluation for clients such as EPA, DOE, USAID, and several utilities.

I hold a Bachelor and Master of Architectural Engineering from the Pennsylvania State University and when not working I am out walking my rescue dogs or travelling to a national park with family.

Jordan Lerner

Nationality: American
Location: London, UK
Role: Director of Solutions Delivery
Company: Dimagi

After completing my undergraduate studies in Montreal, I worked briefly as a communications consultant in Boston before moving to New Delhi, India to join Dimagi, a social enterprise focused on digital health. Over the last 9 years at Dimagi, I've worked to support the design and deployment of digital tools for frontline health workers in underserved communities in Africa and Asia. I currently serve as the Director of Solutions Delivery.

Outside of work, I love being outdoors - trail running, swimming, skiing, or rock climbing - but also enjoy cooking and watching movies. For the last four years I've been travelling a great deal and haven't had a permanent base but am excited to now be moving to London for the duration of the programme.

Through the EGMiM programme, I hope to deepen my management skills, broaden my perspective, and build the skills I need to scale inclusive, digital programmes designed to improve health and economic outcomes in low-resource settings.

Elise McGovern

Nationality: American Location: New York, USA
Role: Vice President of Operations and Strategy Company: Data Management and Compliance/ My Warchest Inc.

I am currently the Vice President of Operations and Strategy at DMC Warchest, a cashflow and compliance tool for democratic campaigns and PACs. Before Warchest was acquired by DMC, I served as the COO of Warchest, where I oversaw the financial reports, revenue projections, the development of the roadmap, the company's human resources, and the compilation of due diligence. Recently, I have been leading the transition process of combining the company's accounts, streamlining processes, and tracking the dual revenue streams.

Before joining Warchest, I worked on democratic campaigns nationwide, from local to presidential levels, including serving as campaign manager for two U.S. Congressional races. Academically, I hold a bachelor's degree in Sociology with a minor in Studio Art from Wheaton College in Norton, Massachusetts. I am excited to begin the Executive Global Master's in Management programme to improve my business and leadership skills. I aim to take on more responsibilities regarding the company's finances as it grows following the acquisition, and to gain experience beyond the U.S. political system.

Outside of work, I love to travel and have a passion for art, whether creating my own works or visiting galleries, museums, and shows. I currently live in Brooklyn, NY, close to my friends and family.

Jen McHenry

Nationality: American

Location: Virginia, USA

Role: Senior Director

Company: Manhattan Strategy Group

I have undergraduate degrees in Public Relations and Policy Studies and a Master's in Organizational Development and Knowledge Management and have been working in federal consulting since 2006. I've supported a range of programmes beginning with the implementation of resource centers (website development, knowledge product development, and technical assistance) for family strengthening grant programmes and moved to being a team lead (programme management, budget support, chief of staff roles) for the US Transportation Security Administration and DHS Science & Technology international office before moving to MSG to lead an evaluation team and business development efforts.

I love coffee and food in general, concerts and live theatre, and podcasts that tell me about books, TV, and movies so I can know what's going on without having to watch myself. I enjoy watching most sports and have some rudimentary skills in crocheting and knitting.

I'm hoping to expand my career opportunities and network beyond federal contracting. I am looking forward to learn new skills, being introduced to new industries, learning about how my skills translate outside of my industry, and, perhaps most of all, meeting new and interesting people.

Igor Novikov

Nationality: British

Location: London, UK

Role: Head of Transformation and Business Development

Company: Tickets Travel Network

I am the Head of Transformation and Business Development at Tickets Travel Network, where I lead transformation initiatives and support international business expansion. I earned a bachelor's degree in Foreign Economic Relations at Ural State University of Economics. With over 20 years of international experience in aviation and travel technology, I have held commercial and business development roles at Skyscanner, United Airlines and British Airways. My expertise is in strategic partnerships, market expansion and enabling access to global services through digital innovation.

Outside of work, I enjoy playing sports, traveling and explore new cultures. I am also passionate about technology and aviation, which continue to inspire both my professional journey and personal interests.

Through the EGMiM programme at LSE, I aim to strengthen my leadership and strategic skills, broaden my global perspective and prepare myself for senior executive roles where I can make a meaningful impact on business growth.

Aubrey Shabangu

Nationality: South African

Location: Johannesburg, South Africa

Role: Dealmaker

Company: Industrial Development Corporation

I obtained an undergraduate qualification in Civil Engineering. Later in my post-graduation years, I obtained a masters in structural engineering. Throughout the process, I acquired several supplementary professional development qualifications for consulting engineering. I additionally hold an MBA qualification which assisted my career to pivot into the world of finance and banking.

I thoroughly enjoy hiking and leisure park walks. If I'm not reading books on business strategy and psychology such as those published by Robert Greene, I'm either plugged into podcast debates held by Jordan Pietersen and the likes or tuned into a limited Netflix series.

Post the EGMiM programme qualification, I intend to make sustained impact in the c-suite roles I'm hopefully appointed into

Deniz Tüzüner

Nationality: Turkish

Location: Istanbul, Turkey

Role: Founder

Company: Dreamland Real
Investments & Trading

.....

I hold a BA (Hons) in Business and Management from the University of Essex, following an Associate Degree at Kadir Has University in Istanbul. I am the Founder and Managing Director of a real estate investment and development company in Turkey, managing dozens of projects within a multi-million GBP portfolio across several cities. Over the past years, my focus has been on land acquisition, project development, investment structuring, and trading, which has given me the chance to grow a company from scratch into a diversified business.

Outside of work, I am passionate about golf, horseback riding, and fitness, all of which help me balance discipline with energy. I also love travelling, discovering new cultures, and connecting with people whose perspectives broaden my own.

Through the EGMiM, I hope not only to strengthen my leadership and global management skills but also to exchange ideas with classmates from diverse backgrounds. My aim is to leverage the programme as a platform for international growth, new collaborations, and long-term impact as a business leader.

Mustafa Yildiz

Nationality: German

Location: Bremen, Germany

Role: Vice President PWM

I graduated with a bachelor's degree in Finance and Accounting in 2019. Since then I have been working at ODDO BHF SE, a Franco- German Private Bank.

I am a sports enthusiast who started playing football at the age of seven. Besides football I love watching American football - I'm a huge NY Jets fan. Last year I started to play Padel regularly.

With the knowledge and skills I will gain in this programme, I plan to enhance my leadership skills with my own team. In combination with the great visibility that you get with an LSE degree, I plan to take the next big step and transfer to a tier 1 bank and progress my career further.
