

Dear ,

Welcome to the Department of Statistics! We are your Programmes Support Team and will be in regular contact with advice and information about the Department and your programme.

You will also receive a monthly newsletter from the Graduate Admissions Office with information on how to prepare for LSE, understand meeting your offer's condition, finances, accommodation, and more.

Department of Statistics Offer Holder website:

Our MSc Offer Holders webpage is your go-to resource for all the information you need for joining us in the Department of Statistics. Here you can read about ways to connect with us, departmental news and review the newsletters.

Please note this webpage is designed to complement — not replace — LSE's offer holder webpage which provides links to the Visa and Immigration Advice team, the Graduate Applicant portal, Graduate Admissions Knowledge base and much more.

Department of Statistics Offer Holder LinkedIn Group:

If you'd like to connect with your peers, join our new Offer Holder LinkedIn group! This is a great opportunity for you to network with your future classmates and start building your own Statistics students community.

Unibuddy – PG student ambassadors:

Through our Unibuddy service, you can connect directly with our postgraduate student ambassadors about their experiences at LSE. You can filter by programme of study, department, or country of domicile to find the best match for your questions.

Mini Virtual Graduate Open Events – 17-21 February 2025:

LSE is hosting a mini Virtual Graduate Open Events series from 17-21 February. These live online events will give you an opportunity to find out more about life at LSE through sessions with a panel of our postgraduate student ambassadors, LSE LIFE and the PhD Academy, along with sessions on Careers and Funding your studies.

The Graduate Admissions team will also be running sessions for prospective graduate students on Applying to LSE and an Information session for Offer Holders covering the next steps in their application and enrolment journey.

Student life:

LSE has a dedicated webpage on student life where you can explore information about campus life, living in London, the Students' Union, and the various activities and support available to help you make the most of your experience.

Next steps:

Accept and confirm your offer if you have not already done so.

Contact us with questions related to your programme or the Department of Statistics.

Contact Graduate Admissions \(lse.ac.uk\) team with any queries about your application.

We are confident that you will find this programme both highly challenging and rewarding, and that your time at LSE will be unforgettable. Everyone in the Department looks forward to meeting you in September.

With best wishes,

Sarah
